Squirrels! With a small patch of standing corn, I have critters like you can't believe. However, with a bunch of help from Kyle at Farm Chains, I revived this old Co-op Corn Picker back to life early this month. This picker my Dad bought used and I remember vaguely him using it probably 30 years ago. I saved it from the junkyard and brought it back from South Dakota probably 10 years ago. Both of my brothers recall pickin' corn with it as well behind my brothers Farmall H. It is old enough to use square headed bolts that I call knuckle busters and have about 50 pounds of weld repairs.

Speaking of band aids and projects, what are you up to? Come to the next meeting and let's talk about your relic you are working on. See you soon.

Last summer we had our youngest new member join our club when Isaiah Yess and his mother came to our monthly meeting. I can remember Isaiah and his whole family, including grandparents, at Summer Harvest. Isaiah is very interested in old tractors, especially a John Deere 620 that belonged to his grandpa Yess. He said it had not run for about 10 years, but that his goal was to get it running.

Unfortunately, about two months later Isaiah lost his dad, and that's when the club took action. With the help of a friend of mine, Bill Menold, Isaiah, and myself we removed the loader and got the tractor loaded on my trailer. I took it home, power washed it, and took it to the museum. Since then we had new rear tires and wheels installed, a pledge for new front tires, pledge for new manifolds, and monetary pledges to go toward getting it running. It will be moved on Jan 9 to the shop area in the museum so work can start on getting it running. I know there is a lot of expertise in this club in knowing what needs to be done to accomplish this job. Anyone with these special skills, I encourage you to give us a hand, and in the end show the community what a big heart our club has. Hopefully we can get it running for Isaiah for this summer's tractor drive.

Terry's Joke Corner

What do you call kids born and raised in a house of ill repute? Brothel sprouts!

(It is kinda an agriculture joke, ya have to admit.)

Trivia

What years did the National Farm Machinery Co-Operative produce farm equipment? Where were the two main facilities?

Answer to Last Trivia Question

The International 8-16 was considered to be a trendsetter by introducing this first commercially successful attachment to a tractor. What is this attachment that is now standard to most tractors nowadays? PTO - Power Take Off.

Help Needed with Newsletter Trivia

Can we get a few volunteers? If not, we are asking everyone to keep the club in mind when you come across something you might think would be a good topic. It doesn't have to be specific to tractors. Some of our trivia in the past has spun off into enlightening conversations, and it adds something neat to our meetings.

Format: Question, answer, source, and keep it short – it has to fit like you see above. Send it to Kim Engquist so it can be copied directly into the newsletter. People have sent me some good ideas in the past, but not in the format needed. If you find it on the internet, include a link to the web page so we have a source to refer to. If you find it in print, provide the document or a copy, as we've found there might be more than one correct answer, depending on the source. Whoever submits the question will not be eligible for the winning prize. Thanks, and we look forward to seeing what you find!

***WEATHER STATEMENT***

Meeting cancellations will be posted on our Facebook page before 5 p.m. the night of the meeting. Always use good judgment before traveling if the road conditions are questionable.
